The Early Childhood Curriculum Program allows participating entities to choose from any of five highly qualified vendors to provide quality educational curriculum products. These vendors have been hand selected for the quality of their product and the resources that they can offer to both educators and pupils alike with governmental negotiated pricing.